

Cavers, cave and karst scientists and managers from around Australia and the world, still thinking about visiting Sydney, Australia and attending the 17th International Congress of Speleology in July 2017? Find out about this exciting event held only once every four years in a selected country, visit our website at <https://www.speleo2017.com/index.html> or Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/Speleo2017/>

There are just 10 days left to take advantage of the early registration discount price. Don't be disappointed, please visit <https://www.speleo2017.com/Register.html> and complete your registration and payment by 31 January, 2017 to avoid the price increase.

Although bookings for some pre and post Congress field trips has closed there are still some options available. Please visit our website for details and contact our excursions coordinator, Cathie, excursions@speleo2017.com with any inquiry.

Having some problems with the online registration and payment facility? Please don't hesitate to contact our Registrations Manager, David, at registrations@speleo2017.com to solve your problems before the deadline passes for our early registration discount rate.

For overseas visitors, combine your attendance at the 17th ICS with a visit to see Australia. Whether it's an exhilarating adventure, a close encounter with our unique wildlife, a relaxing stroll on white sandy beaches, Australia is a dream destination for many and one of the most beautiful places on earth to visit.

Register now without delay. We look forward to meeting you at the 17th ICS, Penrith, western Sydney, Australia, 23 -29 July, 2017.

Please share this message with all your contacts. Apologies for any cross postings.
